REFLECTION

Celebrating Jesus Christ, Fulfiller of God's Covenant with Moses: The Exodus, Drama of Christ's Deliverance

When the time had fully come
God sent forth his redeemer, Moses, to rescue his people from Egypt's slave pits.
The Exodus was God's mighty act of salvation for his people of old.

But blessed be the Lord Jesus Christ,
a Redeemer greater than great Moses:
in his dying and in his rising he leads all God's people out of their enslavement to sin, death, and the power of the devil, our great enemies.

Stand by and watch God do his saving work!
Go forth in confidence and follow the lead of his light through the wilderness into the Promised Land of glory!

EIGHTH SUNDAY OF PENTECOST

Advent + Christmas + Epiphany + Lent + Easter + Pentecost

Gathering Hymn ○ Church Arise

○ church arise and put your armour on
Hear the call of Christ our Captain
For now the weak can say that they are strong
In the strength that God has given
With shield of faith and belt of truth
We'll stand against the devil's lies
An army bold whose battle cry is Love
Reaching out to those in darkness

Our call to war to love the captive soul
But to rage against the captor
And with the sword that makes the wounded whole
We will fight with faith and valour
When faced with trials on every side
We know the outcome is secure
And Christ will have the prize for which He died
An inheritance of nations

Come see the cross where love and mercy meet
As the Son of God is stricken
Then see His foes lie crushed beneath His feet
For the Conqueror has risen
And as the stone is rolled away
And Christ emerges from the grave
This victory march continues till the day
Every eye and heart shall see Him

So Spirit come put strength in every stride
Give grace for every hurdle
That we may run with faith to win the prize
Of a servant good and faithful
As saints of old still line the way
Retelling triumphs of His grace
We hear their calls and hunger for the day
When with Christ we stand in glory

Call to Worship Psalm 105:1-2, 23, 37-43

Oh give thanks to the LORD; call upon his name;

make known his deeds among the peoples!

Sing to him, sing praises to him; tell of all his wondrous works!

Israel came to Egypt; Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.

He brought out Israel with silver and gold, and there was none among his tribes who stumbled. Egypt was glad when they departed, for dread of them had fallen upon it. He spread a cloud for a covering, and fire to give light by night. They asked, and he brought quail, and gave them bread from heaven in abundance.

He opened the rock, and water gushed out; it flowed through the desert like a river. For he remembered his holy promise, and Abraham, his servant.

So he brought his people out with joy, his chosen ones with singing!

Confession of Sin Exodus 14:11-12

They said to Moses, “Is it because there are no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? What have you done to us in bringing us out of Egypt? Is not this what we said to you in Egypt: ‘Leave us alone that we may serve the Egyptians?’ For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness.”

Individual Confession

Absolution Psalm 105:42–45

For he remembered his holy promise, and Abraham, his servant.
So he brought his people out with joy, his chosen ones with singing.
And he gave them the lands of the nations, and they took possession of the fruit of the peoples' toil,
that they might keep his statutes and observe his laws.

Response Hymn Days of Elijah

These are the days of Elijah
Declaring the Word of the Lord
And these are the days
Of Your servant Moses
Righteousness being restored
And though these are days
Of great trials
Of famine and darkness and sword
Still we are the voice
In the desert crying
Prepare ye the way of the Lord

Chorus

Behold He comes
Riding on the clouds
Shining like the sun
At the trumpet call
So lift your voice
It's the year of Jubilee
And out of Zion's hill
Salvation comes

And these are the days of Ezekiel
The dry bones becoming as flesh
And these are the days
Of Your servant David
Rebuilding a temple of praise

And these are the days of the harvest
The fields are as white in the world
And we are the laborers
In Your vineyard
Declaring the Word of the Lord

Chorus

There is no God like Jehovah (repeat 6x)

Confession of Faith

Heidelberg Catechism, Questions 52 & 56

Christians, what do you believe?

In all my distress and persecution, I turn my eyes to the heavens and confidently await as Judge the very One who has already stood trial in my place before God and so has removed the whole curse from me. I believe that God, because of Christ's atonement, will never hold against me any of my sins nor my sinful nature which I need to struggle against all my life. Rather in his grace God grants me the righteousness of Christ to free me forever from judgment.

Communion in Christ Jesus

All Christians are invited to join us to receive Christ's presence of bread and wine. During this time of social distancing we offer for our pastor to come and bless your partaking of elements you provide to preserve the corporate-presence of Christ pictured in the supper as best we can. If you've been part of our streaming service please text Curran (203-812-9928) to set up a time he can meet you (from a distance) to celebrate communion.

Prayer for those searching

Oh God, I am discovering that the more I have, the more I need to have, the more I am loved, the more I need to be loved, the more I achieve, the more I need to achieve. Nothing seems to satisfy me. Could it be, as someone once said, that “Our hearts are restless until they find their rest in thee.” Dear God, if this is true, and if as the Bible teaches there is life and life eternal in Christ alone, please guide me to Him. Open me to the reality of the One who alone can satisfy my restless heart. Give me the courage to believe that which I cannot see but can understand, feel and touch through the Word, sacraments and church family. Lord I want to believe, help my unbelief! Amen.

Benediction Psalm 90:16–17

Let your work be shown to your servants, and your glorious power to their children.
Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us, and establish the work of our hands upon us;
yes, establish the work of our hands!

Coronation Hymn Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow!
Praise Him, all creatures here below!
Praise Him above, you heavenly host!
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost! Amen!

REFLECTION

A Post-Cross Meditation on the Exodus

Israel thought she knew her enemies: they spoke Egyptian and worshipped cats and wallowed in the pride of their culture built on an economy of oppression and slavery. “We have met the enemy—and thank God we are being delivered from him by this fellow, Moses!”

But Israel misunderstood. Do I understand? Egypt was a mirror upon which the people of God could see their own soul reflected. All my enemies typify my heart, the sin in my soul. God came to save me from myself. I am enslaved to self-pity, to lust, to laziness, to arrogance, to a complaining spirit. I am bent in on myself, like all of us. We would be as gods to ourselves—perhaps not terribly base or wicked, only quite in charge. Do we understand? We have met the enemy—and he is us.

○ Lord Jesus, you came not only to save me but to show me my enemies. Because of your great love death shall rattle me in the end but shall not ruin me; the devil may taunt and tempt and try me, but his back has been broken and I shall stand one day, my foot on his neck. In your triumph over these, my enemies, I greatly rejoice.

But that I myself am the third great enemy you came to save me from? Does the Exodus really teach me that the pagan self-will and falseness of Egypt was all left behind in Egypt? Or rather that some was carried through the parted sea in the sin-sick hearts of your people? Must I die as well as my enemies if I am to be saved? Is it I myself that I despise and seek to be rescued from as my own worst enemy? Must I drown the old man in me daily? Must I call myself an idol worshipper and confess a pagan heart prone to wander before I am consoled in the sweet truth that by Mercy I am a chosen child of God?

○ wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death?
(Romans 7:24)

Did Christ at the cross slay me that I might live? I am Israel and I am Egypt; I am the beloved and I am the oppressor of my own soul.

Who will deliver me? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! Grant then Lord, that freed from myself, I might live enslaved to you forever. For then I shall be myself. Amen.
